

THE EVENING BULLETIN.

VOLUME XVII.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JANUARY 17, 1898.

NUMBER 46.

A WEEK IN CONGRESS.

Hawaii Will Be Talked of In the Upper House.

THIS MAY NOT BE LIMITED.

In the Lower House a General Discussion of Foreign Relations Is Due to Crop Out and Become Extremely Interesting.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The Hawaiian annexation treaty will occupy the major portion of the time of the senate. Senator Morgan will take the floor, and, it is understood, will consume at least another day in the presentation of his views in favor of annexation.

He will be followed by Senators Pettigrew and White in opposition to the treaty, and by other senators for and against it. There is no hope that the discussion will be concluded during the week.

A great many senators wish to speak, as long as the result of the vote is as uncertain as it is at present neither side will be disposed to allow the vote to be taken.

The urgent deficiency appropriation bill will in all probability be reported at once, and there may be an effort to secure its consideration during the week.

House Forecast.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The house is likely to become the arena for a general discussion of our foreign relations in connection with the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill.

The house managers do not want an extended debate on Cuba precipitated at this time, but the minority is determined to press the question.

On Tuesday the consideration of the army appropriation bill will be resumed. This is likely to be finished Tuesday, after which the consular and diplomatic bill will probably consume the remainder of the week.

SHOT HERSELF.

Serious Accident to Ex-Senator Joe Blackburn's Youngest Daughter.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Lucile Lane, youngest daughter of ex-Senator Joe Blackburn of Kentucky, shot herself in her apartments at the Wellington hotel just as she was preparing for bed.

The statement given out by the family is that the shooting was accidental, and was caused by a small pistol, which, catching in some lace in the drawer, fell as she lifted them and exploded by the hammer striking the side of the drawer.

The wound is in the left breast and is probably fatal. Mrs. Lane is suffering from shock so severely that the physicians have not yet made any attempt to locate the bullet.

General Auger Dead.

Dynamite Bomb Discovered.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 17.—While preparing to cover the floor of a train of cattle cars at two Belpre stock yards Ferrell, the yard brakeman of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, discovered a big dynamite bomb or cartridge concealed in the shavings. Had the bomb been shoved into a car the hoofs of the animals would have exploded it and a wreck would have resulted. There is no clue to the party who put the bomb in the shavings.

To Test Dow Law.

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—Judge Taft in the United States court temporarily restrained Harry Binister, treasurer of Jefferson county, from selling beer, horses and wagons of the Reymann Brewing company of Wheeling, and attached in Ohio to make good a state tax imposed on manufacturers of beer outside of the state, but delivered within Ohio in original packages. The suit is to test the constitutionality of the Dow law.

Tobacco Plants Destroyed.

Havana, Jan. 17.—The insurgents destroyed 1,000,000 tobacco plants growing under the protection of forts at Camajuan, Santa Clara province, on the night of Jan. 5. They also destroyed 25,000 plants within sight of the forts at Sinto Grande. A correspondent who has just made the journey from Havana to Sagua La Grande reports that not one sugar mill is grinding.

Death of Professor Haldeman.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 17.—Professor John D. Haldeman, formerly of the state normal school at Westfield, Mass., is dead.

FRAUD CHARGED.

Sensational Suit Filed in an Arizona Court.

Prescott, A. T., Jan. 17.—A sensational suit has been filed here in connection with the Crowned King Mining Company, an Illinois corporation. The plaintiff, Orrin F. Place, owner of one-third of the stock, sues the company and five directors, alleging an improper issue of stock, upon which it is claimed the defendants paid themselves $27,000 in fraudulent dividends, and also that the salary roll was improperly swelled.

A Pretty Romance.

Webster City, Ia., Jan. 17.—Elijah Davis, 65, and Miss Fannie Spaulding, 67, were married here. In 1851, when Elijah Davis was 18 and Miss Spaulding was 20, she was one of a party of five in a rowboat that was upset in the Ohio river. Davis rescued her from death by drowning. He commenced paying attention to her, but owing to objections of her parents they were never wedded until now.

Kentucky Trust Company Assigns.

Louisville, Jan. 17.—At a meeting of the directors of the Kentucky Trust company held at noon an assignment to the Columbia Finance and Trust company was ordered and the deed of assignment was filed by the new president, H. D. Ormsby. It has been known that the concern has been in hard lines for some time owing to the flight and peculations of General Manager William Renicke.

A Final Reply.

Calcutta, Jan. 17.—Sir James Westland, the finance minister of the council, made a speech in which he said he was unable to give a final reply to the question of the introduction of the gold standard. One thing was clear, he continued, a great advantage had been made in the direction contemplated by the authors of the policy of 1893, namely, the gold standard would become possible.

Dreyfus Agitation.

Paris, Jan. 17.—M. Anatole French, M. Zola, M. Declaux, head of the Pasteur institute; M. Tirieux and M. Marcel Proust, with numerous doctors, lawyers and writers, have signed a petition in favor of a revision of the Dreyfus trial on account of the "violation of judicial forms and the mystery surrounding it." On the other hand, the students and public still denounce M. Zola.

Gave a Banquet.

Managua, Nicaragua, Jan. 17.—Mr. Edward F. Cragin, Mr. Lyman E. Cooley and their associates in the party of Chicago capitalists and contractors who are here to examine the route of the proposed maritime canal, gave a banquet at the Luponos hotel. President Zelaya and the members of the cabinet were present and music was furnished by the national military band.

Priority of Liens.

Cincinnati, Jan. 17.—Judge Taft sat as circuit judge in the hearing of arguments in the Kansas, Toledo and St. Louis railroad case. Receiver R. B. Pierce of the Cloverleaf was present. The arguments were mainly as to a priority of liens against the road and as to its sale.

Will Probably Be Released.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 17.—C. M. Oliver a convict in the Deer Lodge pen, who has been granted a new trial on the charge of robbery, has received a letter from a firm of lawyers in Bridgeport, Conn., informing him that he had fallen heir to $150,000 by the death of an uncle.

A Tiny Baby.

Delphos, O., Jan. 17.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blochberger here that in size beats all previous records in this section. The babe is perfectly formed and in a healthy condition, but weighs only 1½ pounds. His head can be hidden in a teacup.

Forged Railroad Tickets.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 17.—A long series of railroad ticket forgeries has come to light here which is believed to have been carried on a number of years. The alleged forged tickets were over the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road and connecting lines.

Patterson Arrested.

Boston, Jan. 17.—Charles E. Patterson, 23, an employe in the postoffice, was arrested by means of a decoy letter and confessed to robbing the mails for a period of four years. It is believed that Patterson's robberies will foot up thousands of dollars.

Influenza Prevalent.

London, Jan. 17.—The mildness of the weather (roses are blooming and hundreds of butterflies have been seen) has increased the spread of influenza to a point unknown in London since 1895, with more than the usual number of deaths, especially among elderly people. There were several days of the blackest fog during the past week.

ALL QUIET IN HAVANA.

At Least That Is What the Cablegrams Say.

LEE WAS NOT HEARD FROM.

As He Has Instructions to Promptly Report Disorders It Is Inferred That Everything Is Satisfactory to Him.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Grave apprehension was felt by the officials of the state department and those of the Spanish legation that disturbances of a more or less serious character might occur in Havana Sunday, owing to the fact that many persons otherwise occupied during the week would be comparatively free on that day to follow their own inclinations.

Shortly after noon the minister received a dispatch conveying the information that at 11 o'clock there had not only been no rioting, but not even sporadic disturbances of any kind.

As a precautionary measure General Blanco had carefully provided against any trouble, but so far as surface indications went the precautions he had taken were entirely unnecessary.

Up to 3 p. m. the state department officials had received no word from Havana, and they accepted this as an indication that no trouble had occurred or was anticipated.

General Lee is under instructions to notify the department promptly of anything unusual or in the least way threatening, and the fact that no dispatch was received from him clearly indicates that the city is practically quiet.

Secretary Long has received no additional information concerning the movements of the North Atlantic squadron and said that he expected none.

Admiral Seward will simply carry out the orders previously issued to him and sail with the main body of the squadron for southern waters to enter upon the usual winter maneuvers.

SAILED FOR DRY TORTUGAS.

The North Atlantic Squadron Has Gone to Winter Quarters.

Norfolk, Jan. 17.—Having completed coaling and all provisions for their winter's cruise in gulf waters, the ships of the North Atlantic squadron, which have been anchored in Hampton roads for the past 10 weeks, the flagship New York and the battleships Indiana, Massachusetts and Iowa, left Old Point at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and two hours later passed out of the capes, southbound. They put to sea in the teeth of a northeaster.

The fleet will proceed directly, at 10-knot speed, to Dry Tortugas, their headquarters for the gulf evolutions. This point is within such easy reach of Havana that the ships could be summoned in a few hours should their presence there be necessary.

The Texas will join the flagship off the South Carolina coast. The torpedo boat Foote was forced to take the inside route owing to the heavy weather off Hatteras. The ships are equipped for long voyages and their magazines are well stocked.

Getting Down to Business.

Peoria, Ills., Jan. 17.—The convention of the Bricklayers and Masons' International union is getting down to business, now that the committees are completing their work. The total membership is reported at 56,396, of whom but 31,630 are employed. For beneficial purposes $230,515 had been expended and there is $83,376 in the treasury. The establishment of a national home for indigent members is favored.

Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Peoria, Ills., Jan. 17.—The executive committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are holding their annual session here to receive reports and audit accounts. The net increase in membership during 1897 was 3,000, and 37 new lodges were instituted. The officers report a steady demand for brotherhood men by the railroads.

And There Are Others.

Columbus, Ind., Jan. 17.—Nathan Davis of Sand Creek township, who has been attending Quaker revival meetings, had to be lodged in jail, being crazy over the excitement. Some other people of that vicinity who have been attending the meetings are greatly excited.

He Was an Ohio Man.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—The man who suicided by jumping from the sixteenth floor of the Masonic temple was Albert C. Greenleaf, formerly a prominent business man of Columbus, O.

Killed by Falling Slate.

"HOT TIMES" IN PARIS.

Emile Zola Has Stirred Up the Biggest Kind of a Sensation.

Paris, Jan. 17.—There was a popular demonstration, with a procession of military officials, soldiers, veterans and gymnastic and other associations, in honor of General Felix Saussier, now retiring from the military governorship of Paris, and the commander-in-chief of the French army.

General Saussier, who was in full uniform and surrounded by his staff, stood in the window of his residence responding assiduously to the salutations of enormous crowds.

Ultimately bands of students paraded the streets, shouting perpetually "Conspuez Zola," "Death to the Jews," and the like. In several cases cafe windows were smashed, and the windows of a house mistaken for Zola's was broken. The police finally dispersed the rioters and made many arrests.

Louise Michel and Sebastian Faure addressed a Socialist meeting and denounced the secrecy attending the trial of Comte Esterhazy. There were shouts of "Bas Drumont" and "Bas Rochefort," but there was no further disorder.

An Atrocious Murder.

Philadelphia, Jan. 17.—The body of 5-year-old Percy Lockyer, who is believed to have been murdered on Friday night by 15-year-old Samuel Henderson, was found in the bottom of Reddie creek. The body of the child, when found, was weighted with two heavy stones, one about his neck and the other around his ankles. His skull was crushed in and there was a knife-thrust just above the heart, and similar wounds on his breast, side and forehead, while on the side of his face was a long cut extending from below the eye to the chin.

A Notable Grand Jury.

Trenton, Jan. 17.—One of the most notable grand juries ever drawn in the United States district court for the district of New Jersey is that which will be sworn in on Tuesday at the opening of the January term of court. The panel will include several millionaires, among them George J. Gould, an ex-United States senator, four mayors and several other persons of prominence.

Hanna Leaves for Washington.

Cleveland, Jan. 17.—Senator Hanna left for Washington at 1:40 Sunday afternoon very unexpectedly. His hasty departure is said to have been brought about by the receipt of a message urging him to come to the capital at once. It is believed that the Hawaiian treaty will be taken up this week, and that his presence was desired on that account.

Kasagi to Be Launched.

Philadelphia, Jan. 17.—The launching of the Japanese warship Kasagi, which is being built at Cramps' shipyard, will take place on Thursday at noon. The Kasagi is the most important warship ever built in the United States for foreign account, and is the first foreign warship launched in this country since the Zolacca, in 1873.

Murder Is Suspected.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 17.—The authorities are investigating the death of Joseph Raeside, a horse trainer, whose mangled corpse was found alongside the railroad track at Shell Mound, there being a strong suspicion that he was murdered and his body placed upon the track for the purpose of destroying all traces of the crime.

Fish Combine Formed.

Cleveland, Jan. 17.—The fish dealers of this city, Sandusky, Lorain, Erie and Buffalo have formed a combination of which Mr. Carter of Erie is the sales agent. The object of the combination is to control the price of lake fish in the eastern markets, and a noticeable stiffening of prices has resulted already.

His Heart Too Large.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 17.—A postmortem revealed the fact that Orval Meller, who died at the supper table Friday night, was the victim of an enlarged heart. The weight of the average heart is a little over a pound. His weighed a little over two and one-half pounds, and was proportionately large.

Buried in a Well.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 17.—Early Smith, a young farmer, was removing brick from the wall of a well on his farm, when the sides caved in, burying him several feet under the ground. He was dug out, but was dead when found.

Planing Mill Burned.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 17.—The Cottage planing mill, owned by Schlundt & Sauer, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $25,000; insurance, $5,000. The fire originated from spontaneous combustion.

Indianapolis Gets It.

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—The United Mine Workers of America decided to remove the national headquarters to Indianapolis. President Ratchford favored Cleveland.

BUSY CAREER ENDED.

Hon. Benjamin Butterworth Has Passed Beyond.

AN EXEMPLARY LIFE CLOSED.

He Read Law With Durbin Ward, Served Ten Years in Congress and Was Garfield's Commissioner of Patents.

Thomasville, Ga., Jan. 17.—Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, United States commissioner of patents, who has been ill at Piney Woods hotel here for several weeks, died at 3:15 Sunday afternoon. The end was peaceful, and when it came his wife and children were at his bedside.

He came here to recuperate from an attack of pneumonia, and recovered rapidly until two weeks ago, when he suffered from uremic convulsions.

From that relapse he never recovered. His body will be sent to Washington.

Sketch of Butterworth's Life.

Cincinnati, Jan. 17.—Benjamin Butterworth was what is known as a "blithright Quaker." Those who knew him best during his busy career are unanimous in saying of him, "His daily life was as exemplary of the tenets of that good old faith as that of any public official could be."

He was born in Warren county, O., Oct. 22, 1837; was a member of the state senate of Ohio from Warren and Butler counties in 1873-74; was elected from the First Ohio district to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-ninth and Fiftieth congresses, and was re-elected to the Fifty-first congress as a Republican.

Ben Butterworth, as he has always been best known, spent his earlier years round about Maineville and Foster's Crossing—the latter a little station on the Little Miami railroad. His father was William Butterworth, his mother a Linton—a family noted throughout the entire line for their keenness of intellect, powers of perception and strength in speech and debate. Both parents were of Quaker ancestry.

Major Butterworth's keen intellect and remarkable powers of perception were inherited from his mother. Butterworth's first acquaintance with law was made in the office of Durbin Ward, then a successful practitioner in Cincinnati.

During the war he attained the rank of major in an Ohio regiment. He was commissioner of patents first during the administrations of Garfield and Arthur, and his record made then and subsequently had great weight with President McKinley in selecting him for that position.

He was made secretary of the world's fair project early in the inception of that great enterprise at Chicago during the early nineties, and worked along in that capacity with honor to himself and profit to the company until its close.

A wife and four children survive the dead statesman. His wife was Miss Mary Schuyler of Pennsylvania. The children are Mrs. Howe—a widow—of Washington, D. C.; William, who married a Miss Deere, of Moline, Ills.; young Ben, who was injured in a college game early in life, and Frank, whose prowess as a football coach and fullback is almost international.

Caused General Sorrow.

Washington, Jan. 17.—In Washington, no less than in his native state, Major Butterworth enjoyed a wide acquaintance and great popularity, and the news of his death, while by no means unexpected, has caused general sorrow here. No public man probably had a larger circle of personal friends at the capital. He contracted his fatal illness while on the stump in the late Ohio campaign. No information has been received as to the time or place of the funeral.

Shipwrecked Crew Arrive.

New York, Jan. 17.—On board the steamer Antilla, which arrived here from Nassau, was the mate and nine seamen of the crew of the Italian brigantine Celestina, which was lost on the south side of Watling's Island while on a voyage from Venice to Savannah. No lives were lost.

Commercial High School.

Magdeburg, Germany, Jan. 17.—A commercial high school has been established here for the purpose of affording a higher education to the mercantile classes in branches especially pertaining to their lines of business. It is under state control.

The Deadly Toy Pistol.

New Albany, Ind., Jan. 17.—Clyde Hood, 17, died as a result of blood poisoning superinduced by a wound in the hand, sustained on Christmas day by the accidental discharge of a toy pistol.

Tackled the Wrong Man.

The Bellevue correspondent of the Enquirer says: "While Mr. Charles Wormald, of Lafayette avenue, was walking along the C. and O. tracks near the Bellevue and Dayton line he was approached by three young men, one of whom hit him a stunning blow on the eye. He retaliated by knocking the fellow down and giving him a good beating. The other two fled. Wormald then notified the police at Bellevue, and Officer Peak succeeded in arresting two men who are supposed to be Wormald's assailants. Mr. Wormald's hand is badly swollen. A physician examined it and found the large bone broken. It is thought that the men intended to rob Mr. Wormald."

Our Postoffice Fight.

[Louisville Times.]

By a vote of 16 to 13 the Republican Executive Committee of Mason County voted itself incompetent to elect a postmaster for Maysville and referred the entire matter to Congressman Pugh to decide between Clarence Mathews and Editor Tom Davis. And isn't it for just that sort of thing Pugh was sent to Congress, any way?

Newspapers and Advertising.

The best of business is stimulated by advertising, and the best known business men are the biggest advertisers. John Wanamaker is probably as well known as any business man in Pennsylvania, still he declares he would as soon think of putting up his shutters as quit advertising in the newspapers.—Scranton (Pa.) REFORMS NEEDED

At the Frankfort Penitentiary, Cited By Warden Hancock.

FRANKFORT, Ky., January 14.—Warden Hancock, of the Frankfort penitentiary, has filed his report with the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners. He recommends that the old parole law be again put in use; a system of grading the convicts as an incentive to good conduct; he deplores the number of youthful prisoners still being received, and says there are now in the penitentiary 80 boys under 18 years of age, whom he is separating from the hardened criminals.

The Warden says that perhaps the greatest need of the prison is more cell room and dining space. One thousand two hundred and fifty are now confined at Frankfort, and there are accommodations for but 1,188. The hospital also needs attention.

The Warden recommends that a matron be put in charge of the female prisoners, and the Sinking Fund Commissioners are considering the propriety of appointing female guards for the woman's department in the prison.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A Flood of Bills Introduced Friday—Object of Some of the New Measures.

A regular flood of new bills poured into the House and Senate at Frankfort Friday. Following are some of the new measures:

Act requiring manufacturers of mixed flour and dealers or handlers of same, to label or brand every barrel or package with the ingredients therein contained.

Act to regulate the sale and importation of fruits and other foods put up in metallic cans, boxes and other opaque vessels. Requires the cannery to print on the label the year the fruit was put up or canned and, where imported in bulk, the importer must stamp on the package the date of its arrival in this State.

Act to prevent persons from walking across certain railroad bridges and trestles in this State.

Act to amend the food-fish law so that it will not be lawful to seine the running water.

Act to abolish the State Board of Equalization.

Act to tax the dogs of this State.

Act to fix scale of fees for clerks of all courts.

Act authorizing Council of fourth class cities to collect taxes for municipal purposes and shall have power to determine whether city taxes shall be collected annually or semi-annually.

Act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State.

Act to confer police power on conductors of street cars and railroad trains.

Act to consolidate the offices of Jailor and Sheriff in each county.

Act proposing an amendment to the Constitution to the effect that convicts be worked outside the walls on public roads, &c.

Act to establish a uniform series of text books in the public schools and to reduce the price thereof. (Provides for a School Book Commission.)

Act to regulate the building and repairing of school houses.

To prevent the sale of delinquent tax lists at a cheap price.

To repeal Sections 5 and 7 of anti-mob bill of last session.

Providing that all dentists practicing in this State shall have a license from the State Board of Examiners, appointed by the State Dental Association.

Free of Charge to Sufferers.

Cut this out and take it to your druggist and get a sample bottle free of Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, coughs and colds. They do not ask you to buy before trying. This will show you the great merits of this truly wonderful remedy, and show you what can be accomplished by the regular size bottle. This is no experiment, and would be disastrous to the proprietors, did they not know it would invariably cure. It is guaranteed. Trial bottle free at J. J. Wood's drug store. PROVED FATAL.

James Drennan Died Saturday Afternoon of the Wounds Received in Front of the Coal Elevators.

Mr. James Drennan, who was found under the C. and O. tracks near Wormald's coal elevators at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, lingered until twenty minutes past one o'clock Saturday afternoon when death ended his sufferings.

An examination of the locality where he was found leaves no doubt as to how he was injured. The coal elevator tracks pass under the C. and O. tracks. To bridge over the elevator tracks and protect the fill on each side, the railroad company put in two stone abutments. The railroad fill east of the abutment extends out several feet from the track, making a good foot path. The unfortunate young man evidently took this cinder walk in order to keep off the railroad track, and in the darkness and not being acquainted with the surroundings, he walked right off of the abutment. The fall is fully twenty feet. He struck on the back part of his head, and death was caused by compression of the brain, resulting from the congestion of blood at the injured point.

The unfortunate young man's remains were removed to the home of his parents Saturday afternoon, where the funeral service was conducted this morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. A. T. Ennis. Burial at Washington.

After the above was written it was learned that Dr. Owens made a post mortem examination, which revealed the fact that the skull was fractured at the base of the brain, about three inches below the wound on the head. Dr. Owens is inclined to the opinion that the fall would not have caused such a fracture, and thinks there are suspicious circumstances connected with the case that ought to be investigated. Drennan is the second man who has met death in that locality since the completion of the C. and O. and their fate should warn others to keep off the track and take the streets in their wanderings at night.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

A Regular Savings Bank

Is the January price list of this store. Take Fur Collarettes. The stylish touch that gives a soft elegance to whatever costume with which they are worn and adds beauty lines to the face of the wearer. No one need deny themselves this bit of elegance and comfort, for prices have dwindled to the dimmest prospective. $2.50 buys a beautiful Fur Collar.

COQUE COLLARETTES.—So stylish yet serviceable and full of comfort. Black, with an unusual jetty lustre. Dampness does not affect them and prices are easy—50c.; others all along the way to $2.50.

BABIES' WEAR.—Not many mothers can afford to make all the clothing for the little ones. They find that out when they see the prices here. Babies' Coats, six months, one and two-year sizes, $2.50—Cardinal Cloth, heavily interlined, trimmed with black braid. $1.50, gray or white Bedford Cord, cape and cuffs braided, very handsome.

JAPANESE MATTING.—Last week brought us fifty rolls of Seamless Fancy Matting. There are ten styles. It is worth 17c. a yard by any standard, but early buying saved us a fourth in the gathering. Hence 12½c. a yard.

LOST HIS HOLD.

A Republican Authority Summarizes Hanna's Experience.

[New York Tribune.]

Senator Hanna has won; has won by the smallest possible margin in the separate ballots of the Ohio Legislature and without a single vote to spare in the joint assembly; has won after a bitter and inglorious conflict, which Ohio Republicanism will surely survive, but which for the time being leaves it in a maimed and enfeebled condition. * * * His experience should teach all who aspire to the control of political forces that the people of this country demand and in the long run will insist on having a free voice in the management of their own affairs. They are loyal to a leader, but they hate even the faintest appearance of being driven. They followed Mr. Hanna in 1896 with the keenest satisfaction because he was going their way. In Ohio during the recent campaign a majority less decisively signified their faith and liking; but the animosities which survived in sufficient strength to solidify an unnatural alliance against him and well-nigh give it the victory prove that in some way, to some extent, he has temporarily lost his hold upon the good people of his own State.

Tobacco.

Courier-Journal: "Country buyers are still very active and are paying figures undreamed of a year ago. The agents of Liggett & Meyers are taking all the crops they can get, and Barker & Co. alone are reported to have taken more than 4,000,000 pounds already. At the price they are paying for good Blue Grass crops farmers are receiving $200 to $300 for the products of an acre."

Fifty Horses and Mules Wanted.

I will be at Alexander & Bro.'s livery stable, Maysville, Ky., on Tuesday, January 18, 1898, to buy two car loads of good saddle and harness horses, also some good Southern horses and mules. MR. DAVID S. WHITE.

Death Claims One of the County's Well Known and Successful Farmers. The Summons Came Saturday.

Mr. David S. White, whose serious illness was mentioned some days ago, died Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the family residence near Bernard. He had suffered for some time from heart trouble complicated with other diseases, and for a week or so his condition had been very critical.

Deceased was a native of this county, and was sixty years of age last November. He was a son of the late Austin White, and leaves four sisters,—Mrs. Mary F. Martin, of this city, Mrs. John Crosby, Mrs. E. G. Kirk and Mrs. T. D. Osborne, of the county, and one brother, Mr. James White, of Shelby County. His wife, who is a daughter of the late Dr. J. L. Russell, of this city, survives, with six children,—two daughters and four sons. Deceased was a good citizen, and an industrious farmer, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

The funeral occurred this morning at 11 o'clock at the residence, with services by Rev. W. W. Hall. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

ASPHALT STREETS.

It Would Cost About $17,000 to Pave Second From the C. and O. Depot to East Side of Market.

Mr. J. C. Rock, general agent of the Barber Asphalt Paving Company of New York, was in Maysville Saturday in the interest of his company, and had a talk with Mayor Stalleup on the subject of the contemplated street improvements.

Mr. Rock made an estimate of the cost of paving Second street from the C. and O. depot to the east side of Market street with asphalt. He was told to make his figures large enough so that the actual cost of such an improvement, if made, would not exceed his estimate.

After going over the ground and making his calculations he stated that the cost would not exceed $17,500. This included the space between the street car tracks. His company would guarantee the work for five years.

Mr. Rock went to Cincinnati Saturday afternoon. He will furnish additional estimates in the near future, and it is probable that when spring opens the move to improve the streets will be pushed to some definite conclusion.

MANDAMUS GRANTED

To Compel Kentucky's Auditor to Issue a Warrant For Schools of Reform.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 15.—In the Circuit Court to-day Judge Cantrill granted a mandamus against State Auditor Stone to compel him to issue a warrant for $100,000 to the Commissioners of the Reform Schools.

This sum was appropriated in 1896 "out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated."

The Auditor declined to issue the warrant, because there was a deficit in the Treasury. In 1897 the Legislature amended the appropriation act so as to require the Auditor to issue interest-bearing warrants for the sum named. He claimed this was unconstitutional, hence this suit was brought to test the matter. The Auditor will appeal.

IN the early morning next Saturday, January 22nd, the greatest solar eclipse of the century will take place. The eclipse will be of four hours' duration, the central point of observation being India. A scientific journal says: "Only such of the scientific world as journey to the Eastern continent will witness the eclipse. In America there will practically be no obscuration of the sun at all. It will be at exactly 4:16 o'clock on the morning of January 22nd that observers in Asia, Africa and all Europe, with exception of Spain, the west of France, Holland and Belgium, will see the beginning of the moon's journey over the sun's face. India, as stated, will be most favored in the facilities for observation, and many scientists are hurrying away to that far land to see the obscuration at its best. Time and place are both well suited."

We'll Break the Rule.

January, as a rule, is a dull month for Clothing people. We believe much of the dullness is the fault of the merchants. They labor under the impression that nearly everyone has laid in their winter supplies and fear to expend money for printers' ink. We will break the rule and see what virtue there is in printers' ink and the offer of good Clothing at about 50 cents on the dollar. Now the first thing you want to do is to read this ad. carefully; the next is to come and see the goods advertised. What will follow will be a rule-breaker.

On Thursday morning, January 13th, and until the end of the month, all our fine Beaver Overcoats—garments that sold for $10, $12 and $15, will go at $8.75.

Our finest Beaver, Kersey and Cover Overcoats that sold at $18, $20 and $25 will go at $15.

Our Cheviot and Cassimere Suits that sold at $10, $12 and $13.50 will go at $8.75.

Our finest Cheviots, Worsted, and Cassimere Suits that sold at $15, $18 and $20 will go at $12.

We need not comment on qualities. Everybody knows what class of Clothing we sell. $4.90. $4.90. $4.90

This Represents the selling price of 260 all wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that we recently closed out from C. Meyers & Bro., Philadelphia. Not a Suit in the lot that isn't worth $9. They come in four styles and all sizes. We believe them the greatest bargains we were ever able to offer you. Thursday morning the entire line will be in our show window. Look for the $4.90 Suit. It's a hummer.

Not the Way of Salvation.

When without any tangible evidence we suspect other people of wrongdoing, we always accuse them of what we ourselves would probably be guilty of under like circumstances. So, when without any proof or reason Booth-Tucker, the head of the Salvation Army in America, gives it as his public opinion, not at all privately expressed, that his gifted and beautiful sister-in-law, Mrs. Ballington Booth, is shamming illness to gain sympathy he merely lets the light in on the motives that would be apt to actuate himself in such a situation.

Booth-Tucker is a very queer exponent of the religion of love, peace and good will, the religion that thinketh no evil. It is no wonder his prison home for released convicts does not succeed. It is no wonder the released convicts take to stealing again. With such a sneaking, suspicious atmosphere pervading them as Booth-Tucker has shown himself to carry around with him it would be strange if they did not steal. It would be strange if anything Booth-Tucker undertook succeeded.

All his Salvation Army howling in 40 years cannot wipe out the ignominy of which this fellow has been guilty, this slanderer of women. American men do not appreciate that kind of fighting. Booth-Tucker will do well to take himself back to England. His kind of religion will not go down in the United States.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The offerings for the week were quite an improvement over the week previous, but still not so large as was expected for the second week in the new year. The sales started on Tuesday with light offerings, and prices advanced over the closing sales on Friday, proving to be a very satisfactory sale, which caused large offerings on Wednesday. While prices held up until after dinner, there was an inclination to let prices ease some in the evening, and the sales closed some easier. One house was shut out by the large offerings. On Thursday offerings were reduced again, and while some tobaccos sold remarkably high, others were neglected, and it was what might be termed a fluctuating market. Very light sales on Friday, with more active bidding, were the features of the week's close, when, we are of the opinion, the market was fully as strong as it opened on Tuesday, still there was no advance.

The new crop is attracting the most attention on all mediums and the best leaf, especially those having good color. The low grades are mostly thin, with good color, and are averaging from 5c. to 6 1/2c., mediums from 5c. to 14c., and good grades from 14c. to 20c.

Several shipments were received from West Virginia this week, and good prices were obtained, the highest figure being 19 1/2c., but several averages from 10c. to 13 1/2c. were made.

Some of the manufacturers are only buying the old crop, which causes a good competition on all the red grades, and we consider the lower grades some higher than one week ago. There was not much of the best grades offered, but sufficient to supply the demand and keep prices from declining.

The reports from the country are that a good portion of the crop is being bought up at good round prices, and forces the grower to study hard which will be the more profitable, to sell at home or ship to the market.

We expect a good market the coming week, as the buyers have all returned for the new year, and if the speculators commence buying to redress they are now preparing to do, we can look for a strong competition.

Announcement.

The Courier-Journal Almanac for 1898, about which so much has been said and written, is now on sale. It contains nearly 500 pages and over 10,000 facts and topics. Among the features of special interest will be found a detailed comparison of the tariffs of 1894 and 1897, which shows at a glance the difference between the Wilson and Dingiey bills. The subject of Alaska, with its gold fields and disputed boundary, is of such wide interest, and information from and about the region has been so much at variance that great care has been exercised in presenting the most authentic particulars obtainable. A very useful map of Alaska has been added to assist the readers as well as the traveler. Some space has been devoted to the war in the East. The statistics upon education, agriculture, domestic commerce, gold and silver, pensions, and other subjects of immediate importance and interest are full, impartial and as accurate as possible. The price of this handy manual and volume of useful information is only 25 cents. It is on sale through newsdealers.

The Coming Woman.

who goes to the club while her husband tends the baby, as well as the good old-fashioned woman who looks after her home, will both at times get run down in health. MRS. HOWARD FARROW.

Died, January 10, 1898, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the family residence in Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. May S. Farrow, wife of Mr. Howard Farrow, after an illness of nearly one year. Her long suffering was borne with Christian fortitude and resignation. Mrs. Farrow was born April 25, 1842, near where she died, being the second daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Bramel. She was married to Mr. Farrow September 23, 1860, and was a kind and loving companion. She was a good neighbor, liked by all her friends for her many Christian virtues. She leaves two sisters, husband and many friends to mourn their loss. Her funeral took place at the family residence on the morning of the 12th inst., was attended by a large concourse of relations, neighbors and friends, conducted by the writer. May God sanctify this dispensation of his providence to our kind and at last save us to the kingdom triumphant, for Jesus' sake.
